Addiction Information Seminar

Saturday, February 8, 2020

9 am - 4 pm

This workshop will cover what is addiction, recovery and family.

Who can benefit from this seminar?

- People who think they might have an addiction
- Parents & Grandparents who have a child (of any age) who might have an addiction
- People who were raised by a parent or grandparent with an addiction
- Relatives, Spouses, Neighbors, Friends who care about someone who might have an addiction
- People who are concerned or confused about the addiction problem in their community
- Parents who want to make good decision for their children to prevent addiction

This complimentary seminar is open to the public.

A light breakfast and lunch will be provided.

For more information, or to register, please contact Sandy in the church office, 610-384-2035, or Carole Thomas, 610-937-7342

Doors will open at 8:30 am

Presented by: Carole Thomas, a retired Social Worker, was an individual and family therapist, child abuse investigator, forensic interviewer, and addictions counselor for prison and treatment facilities. Carole served 9 years on the Governor's Planning Council for Developmental Disabilities, and currently serves as a volunteer on the Chester County ACES coalition. Carole has bachelor's and master's studies in Social Work, as well as extensive training and experience in the areas of trauma and addiction.

Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd

107 S. 17th Avenue, Coatesville, PA 19320

610 384-2035