The Shepherd's Voice

October 2022

Dear Friends in Christ-

An expression being used more often of late is liminal space or liminality. By definition a liminal space is a location which is between two other places. It comes from the Greek word for threshold. Properly speaking a liminal space is not a destination but a transitional place. Examples include airports, elevators and waiting rooms. Liminality then, is what we experience in times and places when we have left here but aren't yet there.

As a congregation we are in a state of liminality, which can bring both anxiety because of the unknowns and excitement for what is yet to come. To complicate matters, the Christian church in this country and around the world is in a state of liminality. The way we did things in the past is not the same as what is to come. This was true before the pandemic, but COVID-19 has made it even clearer that we are in a time of change. And it isn't easy. Even when you are excited about the change, it can be hard.

While living through a liminal time is challenging because of the unknown, it is also a time of possibility. It can be a time of creativity and innovation. It gives us space for self-examination and can be a moment in our lives when authentic transformation can happen.

As we continue through the interim process, my hope is that we will experience more excitement than anxiety. Our Transition Team will be formed soon and will direct Good Shepherd through the process of creating a Congregational Profile which will be used during the search for a new pastor. In the meantime, there are opportunities to celebrate, share and serve our Lord Jesus Christ.

I hope that this fall season brings you gracious happenings and meaningful memories.

Pastor Heidi

Invitation Sunday – October 30th

Invitation Sunday

On October 30th we will be hosting Invitation Sunday at Good Shepherd. In the next few weeks you will have an opportunity to invite friends, family and neighbors to join us in a festive worship service followed by a brunch reception.

Paper invitations will be available for you to add a personal note before sharing it with someone you know.

Perhaps you have a family member who hasn't been to church lately, invite them! Maybe you have a new neighbor, invite them! Is there someone who used to sit near you in worship and you're missing them of late? Invite them! We'll even give you some sample "verbiage."

Our hope is that by inviting others to worship, they may feel uplifted by the gospel and welcomed to our community.

Social Ministry thanks all members of Good Shepherd

Social Ministry would like to thank all who have been bringing food to stock our Blessing Box. We also receive donations from Olivet Methodist Church, our Boy Scouts, Rosebud's, retired teachers from Friendship Elementary School, Grocery Bargain Market, Coatesville Lion's Club, Bondsville Mill Gardens, and our local neighbors. We have also been blessed to have Thrivent members who have been given monetary grants to buy food directly. Without all of these donations there is no way we could stock the Box. We know that the box is feeding families. In fact we found a note in the box from a woman "...thanking us for helping her family survive".

We want you to know that: we continue to need sources of protein like canned meat, stew, soups, canned ravioli, beefaroni and beans. We also need personal care items like deodorant, shampoo/conditioner, womn's sanitary items, toothpaste etc. Please bring basics like, rice, bread, cereal, pasta, pasta sauce and cereal and bring Chicken Helper, Tuna Helper, instant potatoes and stuffing. Please put your donations into the Blessing Box or on the food tables during open church hours.

Social Ministry Thanksgiving/Christmas Meals for Families in Need

We will provide special music to both congregations throughout the season. Please keep the bell choir in your prayers as we venture into this new chapter of our ministry, and do consider joining us if you enjoy the bells! No experience needed!-MarthaChan (mchan@luthgoodshep.org)

The LIFT Team is in Need of Some Volunteers

We need some new voices to share God's word with our youth and families. This is a very small time commitment and all of the planning is already done. You will be provided with everything you need - it is as easy as reading the lesson and encouraging conversation. You can sign up to help just one time, to help once a month, or weekly if you wish. Our curriculum encourages hearing our stories from different voices so that is a LIFT goal for this year.

Ladies' night out - Bunco is back!

Quilters Welcome

GOD is GOOD

The Social Ministry Evangelism Committee wants to start a new feature in the newsletter called "God is Good!" The idea behind this is that sometimes we forget that even a small act of kindness can make a difference in the world, especially when it seems that all we hear are bad things happening. What we are asking people to do is to submit an anecdote about something kind that they did for someone else (don't be shy) or something that someone did for you! Please submit your story to Kim Tapscott at tapscots@verizon.net, and monthly the committee will choose one or more to share in the newsletter. God is Good all the time and has "angels" everywhere showing his love! Let us rejoice and watch for the good in ourselves and others as we share the good news of God's love! Kim Tapscott, on behalf of the Social Ministry/Evangelism Committee.
